

Krunch South West

Lead Youth Worker

Job description

Are you ready to be part of a vibrant and dynamic faith-based charity working with young people?

If the answer to this question is yes, then you could be who we are looking for!

Krunch South West is a Thornbury based charity providing positive activities, mentoring and youth clubs for young people in the town and surrounding area, and also in Berkeley.

We are currently looking for a dynamic, creative and enthusiastic lead youth worker to join our team.

The role involves planning, delivering and leading a variety of youth work sessions, such as regular youth clubs, small group work and holiday activities, as well as face-to-face work with young people; offering support, guidance and encouragement to young people in a variety of settings, encouraging personal and social development by building trusted relationships.

We need someone with a non-judgmental approach towards supporting young people but who is also fun and outgoing! Skills needed are a passion to work alongside young people, leadership, initiative, good organisation and great communication.

You should be able to demonstrate experience of working with young people aged 10 years upwards, including those who may display challenging behaviour, and be familiar with the matters facing young people from a range of backgrounds.

You will have some leadership experience, relish working as part of a team, and be willing to work within a Christian ethos.

Level 3 Youth Work Qualification or equivalent experience preferred.

This post is subject to an Enhanced Disclosure Application to the Disclosure and Barring Service.

Hours of work: 16 hours per week

Hourly rate of pay: £12.67 (depending on qualifications/experience.)

Location: The Pod, Thornbury Road, Thornbury, BS35 3JB

How to apply: To apply for this role please email liz@krunch.org.uk for a detailed job description and application form.

Closing date: Position open until filled.
