

Changing Lives Charity, Support Worker – Andrew House

Changing Lives
Charity

Giving hope and a future

Are you passionate about changing lives and supporting people to find hope and a future? Do you have a commitment to show God's love, working alongside men as they recover from trauma and its effects? Andrew House is an 11-bed, male only therapeutic community. We are looking for a compassionate Christian to join our friendly team, who has experience of helping those with addiction and/or mental health issues, and has the skills to motivate our residents to make life changes that will sustain long-term recovery. We particularly encourage applications from those with lived experience.

Salary: Up to £25,500 pa pro rata
