Join us for an evening of celebration, challenges and encouragement as we prepare to continue fighting poverty together during 2011. The event will feature an address from John Bell from the Iona Community, as well as stories and presentations from Christian Aid staff. The evening is for anyone keen to help us achieve our goal – to end poverty – and resources will be available to support you in this.

VENUE: Manvers Street Baptist Church, Bath

DATE: Wednesday 2 March 2011

TIMES: Doors open at 7pm, and the event is from 7.30pm to 9.30pm

BOOKING: The event is free but a collection will be taken. Bookings must be made in advance to gain entry. To reserve a place or to find out more, please email bookings.west@christian-aid.org or phone 01454 415923

CHURCH LEADERS' DAY

Join us for a day of support, celebration and challenges for church leaders, which will feature an address by John Bell from the Iona Community and presentations from Christian Aid staff and supporters. The aim of the event is to prepare us for Christian Aid Week 2011 and help us in our ongoing work to help end global poverty.

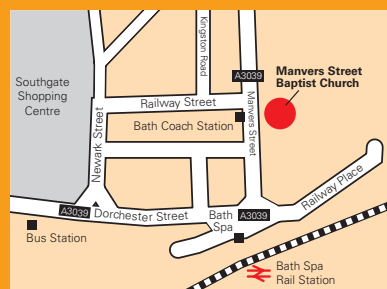

The day will also include worship; optional workshops on climate change, international tax dodging, the theology of development and Israel and the occupied Palestinian territory; stalls with resources to help you fight poverty, and a panel discussion entitled, 'Won't the poor always be with us?'

VENUE: Manvers Street Baptist Church, Bath

DATE: Thursday 3 March 2011

TIMES: 9.15am for 9.45am to 4.15pm

BOOKINGS: The event is for church leaders from all denominations and is free, but a collection will be taken. Bookings must be made in advance to gain entry. To reserve a place or to find out more, please email bookings.west@christian-aid.org or phone 01454 415923
